

A Day of Remembrance & Reflection

500th Anniversary of the Reformation

Monday, October 30 & Tuesday, October 31, 2017

The Christian Church is poised to commemorate the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. As the Church looks back on this historic event, it is important that we look at the positive results as well as the unintended outcomes that have occurred. The goal of this Conference will be to engage in dialogue within our Christian community with a view toward greater interaction and development of respectful relationships.
